a) Alumni contributing to the development of the Department

The alumni are contributing through the platform of Alumni Association by providing assistance for Industrial training, Placement assistance, and assistance through donation of Books to the department library and through seminar presentation for the benefit of the students of the department.

In order to enrich the knowledge of our students and enhance practical exposure, our alumni are continuously in touch with the department for providing industry standard projects to final year students.

Our alumni give us appropriate suggestions for framing the syllabus, so that the curriculum provided meets the present day industry requirements. This also helps the department to elevate the professional status and to be on par with the industry standards.
